RIBBONS BEING PINNED IN SHOW

Placing of Awards in Corn Classes
Practically Completed But Other Departments Are Unfinished

THE SWEEPSTAKES WINNERS

Argus Wagoner of Orange For Best Ten Ears and Robert Longfellow of Union For Single Ear

Hundreds of people from all parts of the county were swarming into the Rush County Products Show, which was in full swing here today at the Kirkpatrick garage and in the court house, with the hogs, poultry and corn show at the former place and the ladies' departments located in the court house.

Judging was taking place today in every department, and only in the corn show was the list of awards completed for public announcement.

A big feature of the show will take place tonight at the Graham Annex auditorium, when a program will be given, beginning at 7:15. C.
F. Masterson of Greenfield will be the principal speaker, and a motion picture, "Spring Valley," which is of interest to farmers, will be shown.

The big show will be brought to a close Thursday night with a get-together banquet for farmers and business men at six o'clock at the K.
of P. building. At this time a program also has been arranged with Frank P. White of Chicago as the speaker of the evening.

The judging in every department is no small task, on account of the unusually large number of entries in every class. In the poultry department there are 187 entries and several different classes, making the work a real job for the judges. This afternoon the judges were preparing to pin on the awards.

The judges also were busy this afternoon in the hog department, which was attracting unusual attention because of the big display, with hogs entered in all five classes.

In the ladies' departments in the court house, the judging of the cooking had been completed, but on account of a few errors, the complete list was held up for announcement until tomorrow. The awards in the girls' club work also had been made and will be announced tomorrow.

The corn show awards were being tagged this afternoon, and as each township had separate prizes, the task was equally as difficult as any other department.

Argus Wagoner drew first place in the Class A, of ten yellow ears, and in class B, of the best single ear, yellow, Robert Longfellow of Union township took first place.

In class C, of ten ears white, William McClure took first and in

FARMERS KIWANIS GUESTS

R. L. Dollings Co. Agents Also Attend Weekly Meeting Today.

Farmers here for the Rush County Products Show were special guests at the regular meeting of the Kiwanis club in the basement of the First Presbyterian church today noon. District agents of the R. L.
Dollings company, who were here today for a meeting, were guests of Kiwanians, W. A. Young and Wallace Morgan.

Each member of the Kiwanis club had one farmer as a guest and several short talks were made, commenting on the county products show. The principal talk was made by Fred C. Palin of Newtown, Ind., one of the judges at the corn show.
Mr. Palin won the $1,000 Kellogg trophy at Omaha in 1909. Kiwanian James Wylie of Lafayette, judge at the hog show, and the Rev. Walter L. Kunkle, were also guests of the club.

AMNESTY FOR ALL IRISH PRISONERS

King George Issues Proclamation
Ordering Release of All Sinn
Feiners Held in Jails

TROOPS TO BE WITHDRAWN

Dail Erriann Cabinet Will Meet in Special Session Thursday Noon
to Pass on Treaty

(By United Press)
Belfast, Ireland, Dec. 7—Acceptance of Irish peace treaty today was deferred by Ulster until after Premier Sir James Craig conferred with Lloyd George in London. Craig told the Irish parliament he would defer announcing his views on the settlement until after tomorrow's party conference. He proposed to go to London to obtain lucidation on certain points.

London, Dec. 7—King George today issued a proclamation of amnesty to all prisoners now in Irish jails on political charges. Instructions were issued for the immediate release of the Sinn Fein prisoners in accord with the acceptance of Ireland as a free state.

The proclamation was issued at 6 p. m. Viscount Fitzalan or Lord Lascelles, finance of Princess Mary, will be the first governor general of the Irish free state, it was stated following the meeting of the privy council. The privy council also discussed the special session of parliament called for December 14 at which the settlement with Ireland will be submitted for ratification.

Preparations were being made to withdraw the British troops remaining in Ireland. The status of the British war craft in the Irish harbor is not affected under the peace treaty.

The Irish republican army which done so much guerrilla fighting before the treaty probably will form the nucleus of the new Irish army authorized under the treaty.

DeValera sent an urgent summons to all Dail Erriann cabinet members to attend the special session at noon tomorrow to pass on the peace treaty.

special session was called for December 15 to act on it, will be drafted man Durean of the removal committee, which held the present law unworkable, Michael Foley and Thom-

DECIDE ON PUMPER WITH FLIP OF COIN

Councilmen Tied on Choice Between Ahrens-Fox and Seagraves
And Latter is Purchased

THE TOTAL COST IS $11,800

Pumper Will Replace Horse-Drawn Equipment in Use Many Years
—Delivery in Three Months

The city council last night awarded the contract for a motor fire pumper, combination hose and chemical truck to the Seagraves Fire Apparatus Company of Columbus, O., the decision being made by tossing up a dollar in order to pick between the Seagraves and Ahrens-Fox, when a tie vote existed.

The Seagraves truck, which was demonstrated here on Thanksgiving Day, made quite a favorable impression. The machine contracted for calls for a 600 gallon capacity pump, a hose bed that will carry 1,000 feet of fire hose, a 40 gallon chemical tank, ladders, axes and complete equipment mounted on a six cylinder chassis of 130 horsepower, and equipped with pneumatic cord tires.

The bid awarded last night was the highest price of any competitive firm, the price being $11,800, and the machine will not be equalled by equipment by any city in this vicinity. It will be a piece of equipment that should be pointed to with pride by the people of this city.

The fact that the city of Chicago purchased 35 machines is pointed out as one of the reasons for its superiority. The Ahrens-Fox, which is placed on a level by the councilmen, also manufactures a good machine, and they also have the contract for 35 machines in Chicago.

The four councilmen last night were divided two and two, but each side admitted that either apparatus would do, and by agreement a dollar was tossed into the air, and it was a case of "tails" winning for the Seagraves company.

The new pumper will replace the present horse drawn wagon when it arrives, but delivery cannot be made in less than three months time. The chemical truck will be retained.

The need of better fire protection has been advocated here for several years, and when the new pumper arrives it will give Rushville two pumping engines, one an Ahrens-Fox steamer which has been in use for several years, and the two combined will have a capacity of 1200 gallons of water a minute, or equal to one 1200 gallon machine.

Very little other business was transacted last night at the meeting, except the council began to prepare things for the new administration which takes office on January 2.

The city is free of debt, as the $28,000 in the general fund was sufficient to pay off a considerable amount of indebtedness. Notes totalling over $7,000 were paid off, and $5,777.24 was paid out of the water and light fund for one-half of the expense of installing a new boiler at the plant, which is now nearing completion.

Seals Sale Climbs

The best showing made any day since the Christmas Seals sale opened in Rushville, was registered today when a total of $80.75 was reported by the workers. With $182.00 previously reported, the total today went to $262.75. In the report today were several Health Bonds, including one for $25.00 taken by the Rushville National bank.

As an advertising feature of the campaign, a picture of the Rushville visiting nurse's car will be exhibited at the local theatres to impress on everyone that when they buy Seals or a Health bond, they are helping to support the visiting nurse, who is on the job daily fighting disease and improving the health of the people in the community. The photographs for the slides were made by Frank Wallace, photographer, free of charge.

Managers of the Seals sale campaign stated today that they were receiving active and hearty co-operation from Rushville factories, which

CHRISTMAS FUND GROWING SLOWLY

Good People of Rushville Forget
Duty to Children of Rushville
This Year, it is Believed

DATA IS BEING COLLECTED

Two Members of County Board of Children's Guardians Are Canvassing Homes of City

Elks Lodge ----- $100.00
John S. Beale ----- 5.00
Salvation Army Kettle ----- 3.03

Total ----- $108.03

Since the Daily Republican-Salvation Army Christmas fund was announced a few days ago, a few donations have been received, but they are not coming in with any rapidity, which leads to the opinion that many people have forgotten their duty to the children of Rushville whose prospects for Christmas are slim indeed, unless the good folks of Rushville
come to the rescue.

Two members of the county board of children's guardians are making a thorough canvass of the city and are investigating the homes of all the children whose names are placed on the list of those whose Christmas will be cheerless without the aid of the fund.

Mrs. Leila Retherford and Mrs.
Cora Stewart began the annual investigation Tuesday and were continuing it today in an effort to cover the city as soon as possible, but at the same time make a careful investigation of the conditions surrounding every home which they enter.

That the need for the Christmas effort is greater this year than at any recent Yuletide season, is generally acknowledged, which is all the reason why friends of the fund should come to the rescue at once so as to insure its success at the very outset.

Unemployment is reported to be greater this year than for several years and parents will not be able to buy gifts for their children. It is up to the big-hearted people of the community whether the little folks lose faith in Santa Clause, whether they continue to believe that Christmas is a time of joy and not one of sadness.

The fund will be conducted in the same way that it was last year. All the data required regarding every child, his or her age, address, desires and needs will be written on a card by the women who are collecting the facts. These cards will be distributed among Elks and Rotarians a few days before Christmas

SETTLEMENT IN ARMS CONFERENCE IS NEAR

Quadruple Understanding is Agreement to Arbitrate Before Pacific Hostilities Start.

GERMANY NOT TO BE INVITED

Washington, Dec. 7.—A final agreement on the momentous question of the quadruple power Pacific understanding to replace the Anglo-Japanese alliance, the Hughes capital ship ratio and non fortification of the Pacific appeared near in the arms conference today.

Preliminary reports from Tokio indicated that Japan will agree to the program approved last week by the big three, Hughes, Balfour and Kato.

From British sources today came details of the quadruple understanding which revealed agreement to arbitration of disputes before any hostilities in the Pacific are undertaken.

Japan gave additional security by limiting all Pacific island fortification and this is reaching the crisis for acceptance of the Hughes 5-5-3 capital ship ratio.

China would not be in the understanding. The Far Eastern committee agreed to respect China's neutrality in case of war.

From administrative sources it was learned that President Harding had decided not to invite Germany to the conference.

AUTO ACCIDENT BASIS FOR SUIT

Charles H. Meyer Asks $250 Damages From Clorenne Allen in Complaint Filed Today

VERDICT FOR THE PLAINTIFF

Jury Awards John Jackman of Milroy $500 Damages Against the Big Four Railroad

Another recent automobile accident was the cause of the filing of a damage suit this morning in the circuit court, the second such case in as many days, wherein Charles Meyer is plaintiff and Clorenne H. Allen is defendant, the demand being for $250 damages.

The complaint alleges that on November 7 of this year, the plaintiff was driving his car east and west in First street, west of Harrison, and that in front of him was a car driven by the defendant, who turned into an alley running north and south, without giving any warning of turning.

The plaintiff alleges that as a result, the automobile struck his car, breaking the left front wheel, and overturning the car, breaking the top, and causing damage to result in the amount of $250. The suit was filed by C. W. Duncan, attorney.

The case started in the circuit court yesterday of John Jackman against the Big Four railroad, was concluded this morning when the jury returned a verdict for $500 in favor of the plaintiff.

The plaintiff sought damages for the loss of 45 head of hogs which were a portion of a shipment from Crawfordsville to Milroy. The plaintiff alleged that the 45 head were not delivered and that the railroad company was responsible for the loss.

The case was not fully completed yesterday, and this morning the jury returned and was instructed, and after they had deliberated for an hour and twenty minutes, returned the verdict for $500 damages.

SCHOOL COSTS LOWER IN CITY

Expense of Educating Children in Various Units of County Are Shown in Table

PREPARED BY W. E. WAGONER

Fewer Pupils to Room and Transportation Items Which Increase Expense in Country

The cost of educating the school children of Rush county, both in the grades and high school, reveal an interesting piece of news for the taxpayers and school patrons of the county, in a tabulated report given out today by County Superintendent
W. E. Wagoner.

During the school term of 1920
and 1921, or last year, the report shows that the minimum cost for each pupil was in Rushville city, where it cost $37.77 to educate each pupil in the grades, and $85.50 for each high school pupil.

The highest cost of educating a pupil was in Richland township, which averaged $96.89 for the grade pupils, with no expenditure for the high school, on account of the township not having a high school.

Two reasons are assigned for the school costs being so much lower in Rushville city. One is on account of the greater number of pupils to a school room, which lessened the ratio, and on account of the fact that the city schools do not have to pay transportation for the pupils.

The item of transportation is a costly matter in figuring up the per capita cost of educating a boy or girl, and in rural schools this is necessary under a state law.

The high cost of educating the pupils in Richland township in comparison to other townships, is due also to the fact that there are

EDWIN FARRER, 74, IS DEAD IN INDIANAPOLIS

Former Rushville Man Who Was Prominently Identified With I. O.
O. F. Lodge to be Buried Here

FUNERAL THURSDAY 2:00 P. M.

Edwin Farrer, 74 years old, former Rushville man, died at the home of Mrs. Chas.

Broadhead, a relative, in Indianapolis, on Tuesday evening. He left here about five years ago, when he was elected assistant secretary of the Grand Lodge of Odd

Fellows, with which he was promi-nently identified.

The deceased was initiated into the Rushville lodge November 25, 1868, at the age of 21 years and because of the active interest he took, was elected grand master of Indiana Odd Fellows in November, 1904, which office he held one year. Mr. Farrer was grand representative to the grand sovereign lodge at Toronto in 1906. He was chairman of the grand lodge committee on printing and supplies for years.

Mr. Farrer was a member of the building committee that remodeled the I. O. O. F. building here and had personal charge of the interior decorations, which are out of the ordinary and are original with him. Being an artist by profession, he painted an oil painting of Lon Sexton which was presented to the lodge and now hangs in the lodge room.
He also donated two large lots in East Hill cemetery for the purpose of burying Odd Fellows who have no other place for burial.

Short funeral services will be held at the residence in Indianapolis on Thursday morning and the remains will be brought to the M. E. church here for services at 2 p. m., in charge of the Odd Fellows. Burial will take place in East Hill.

BRIDGE REPAIRS TO PREVENT ACCIDENTS

Big Bridge Over Flatrock, North of Greensburg, is Completed by Highway Department

AUTOIST BROKE IT DOWN

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 7.—No reckless motorist again will find it possible to tear out the end of the big 175-foot single span steel bridge across Flatrock river, eight miles northwest of Greensburg by running a car into it, declares Lawrence Lyons, director of the state highway commission. To prevent recurrence of such an accident which put the bridge in the down and out class for some weeks, the highway department has just completed a concrete band railing to guard the approach. According to Mr. Lyons a motorist traveling too fast to negotiate the curved approach swung his car into one of the big steel end posts literally cutting it into ribbons and so weakening the bridge at the land anchor that traffic across it was extremely hazardous. The department spliced this end post with an 18-foot steel beam, and built the concrete railing to act as a buffer. The repair work also included removal of debris and decayed matter collected around the base of the steel trusses and which caused them to rust. Concrete walls were built back of the trusses to prevent future accumulation of such cadacious matter. By the expenditure of only $1,800 this bridge has been placed in condition for public utility for at least 15 years William J. Titus, chief bridge engineer, says.

JOHN G. BROWN WILL SPEAK

Mrs. R. A. Ogg Also on Washington Township Farmers Program

The Washington Township Farmers' association will hold an all day meeting on next Monday at Raleigh, and a program is being arranged for the day, which will include a basket dinner at noon. The meeting will be held in the Raleigh hall, and J. G. Brown, president of the state federation, will be present for the main address. Mrs. R. A. Ogg of Greencastle, also will be among the speakers. A male quartet from Rushville will furnish a musical program, along with other interesting features that are planned.

An invitation has been extended to every farmer in the township to attend and bring his family and a basket of eatables for the noon meal.

Of Canvas and Ribbon

It goes without saying that bags of all sorts are among those gifts that are always welcome. There are many new ones this year made of coarse canvas, or unbleached linen and trimmed with narrow satin ribbon and ribbon flowers. Baby ribbon may be drawn through the interstices of the canvas. Drawing threads out of either the canvas or linen makes it possible to weave wider ribbons over and under the remaining threads, in borders or ornaments. Flowers cut from cotton or linen, in various colors, are applied to the linen bags and buttonholed along their edges with cotton floss or yarn. A case for holding playing cards and a bag which may be put to various uses are shown above in gifts suited to either men or women.

three buildings in the township, which combined with providing transportation, causes the amount to soar.

The cost of education in the high school is considerably higher than grade schools, on account of the fact that there are not as many pupils enrolled in the high school, and because high school teachers, as a rule, are paid higher wages for their services.

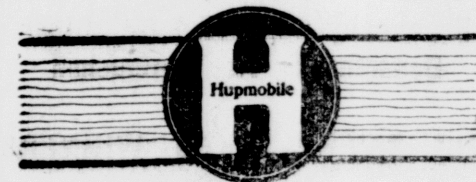

A table showing the cost in every township, for each pupil, in the grade schools and high schools, has been prepared and is listed below:

MEASURED IN EGGS

•Milford, Ind., Dec. 7—James Sheppard, cashier of The Farmers State Bank of Milford has figured that at current prices of new corn and eggs it takes about 50 bushels of corn to buy one case of eggs. At this rate, he says, it took more than one and one-fourth acres of corn, based on the averaged yield in Kosciusko county, to bring the price of a case of eggs.

•Farmers in the Milford district are taking advantage of the situation and are feeding their corn to hens instead of selling the grain.

SALVATION ARMY
REVIVAL BEGINS

Col. J. C. Addie of Chicago, Assisted by Capt. Westbrook of Texas, Opens Campaign Here

TO CONTINUE UNTIL MONDAY

Col. Addie, Evangelist of Central Territory, One of the Veterans of The Early Days

Colonel J. C. Addie of Chicago, assisted by Captain J. W. Westbrook of Texas, will begin an old-fashioned revival campaign in Rushville at the Army chapel in South Pearl street tonight. The campaign will continue until next Monday night when Col. Addie will give his famous lecture, "Modern Miracles", at the court house. It will be preceded by a musical program which is being arranged.

The meetings will open each evening at 7.30 o'clock and will be preceded by a street meeting, the first of which will be held this evening.

Col. Addie is the spiritual "special" evangelist for the central territory comprising fifteen states. He is one of the veterans of the Army of the early days when street meetings were frequently turned into riots.

Capt. Westbrook is said to be a splendid singer and an expert banjo player, and is often termed the "Texas minstrel man." He will play his banjo at the street meetings.

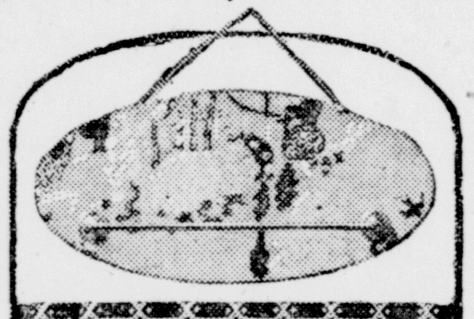

"Colonel Jack" Addie

Lieut. Colonel Addie was born in Scotland and has served as a soldier and officer of the Salvation Army for over 40 years. He came with his parents to Canada as a boy and at the age of 19 years began the first Salvation Army work in Canada and from his pioneer work the Army has grown to large proportions in the Dominion. After serving 19 years in Canada he came to the United States and was in charge of the work in Illinois for six years and for four years in charge of the Army work in Ohio. He was then transferred to Kansas City as Provincial Officer in charge of the entire Southwest and six years later removed the Southwestern headquarters to St. Louis, where he remained for four years.

Colonel Addie was then attached to the Western territorial headquarters at Chicago and for five years had entire charge of Men's Social and Prison Work of the Salvation Army west of the Mississippi river. While directing this work he became known to thousands of prisoners in the State penitentiaries as "Colonel Jack". Colonel Addie also organized the Anti-Suicide Bureau of the Salvation Army and is given the credit for saving thousands of people from self-destruction. This is one of the unique features of Salvation Army service and his work in organizing the Bureau has made for him a national reputation.

A Credit to The County

The Rush County Products Show reflects credit on the farming interests of the county and should be seen by every person living within the confines of the county. No one feature completely overshadows any other, unless it is the hog show.

In this department there are in excess of 125 entries which, according to many farmers, is a far better display than is made at the average county fair. Rush county is primarily a pork producing county and it is proper that this division of the show should stand out above the others.

It is encouraging to observe that all of the hogs entered are of standard breeds, which is further testimony to the wisdom of Rush county farmers, who have learned by experience that there is more money in raising good hogs than in pouring corn into porkers of inferior quality. The rise of the registered hog

MISS FRANCES NEWMAN,
Chicago, Ill.

"Only a medicine of truly wonderful merit could have done what Tanlac did for me and there is nothing half good enough for me to say about it," said Miss Frances Newman, 2639 Hirsch St., Chicago:

"I don't think anybody ever suffered any more from indigestion than I did and for over a year I was in wretched health. I had smothering spells and my heart palpitated so violently I thought I had heart trouble, but I know now it was all caused from my stomach.

"Since taking Tanlac I feel and look like a different person. I have a splendid appetite and my digestion is just perfect. I sleep eight or nine hours every night and get up in the morning feeling fresh and happy. My friends tell me I'm always smiling now and I certainly ought to be, for I'm enjoying life again."

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by B. Johnson Drug Co. and by leading druggists everywhere. Advertisement.

in Rush county has been rapid. All praise to the pioneers in the movement who have long been advocating the raising of pure-bred stock and have thus advanced the interests not only of the hog raisers, but of the whole county as well.

It is proper that Rush county should have a creditable hog show because this county is the leading pork producing county in the United States. Evidence of this fact is found in government statistics which showed that January 1 there were ten thousand brood sows in Rush county. No other county had anywhere near this number of sows.

It follows, of course, with this kind of a record for hog production, that Rush county farmers should raise large quantities of corn because it is the principal feed for hogs. The corn displays at the show are splendid and disclose that farmers have been taking more interest in this crop in recent years than ever before.

The exhibit of chickens and the large list of entries also opened the eyes of Rush county people because few realized that the chicken industry had reached such proportions here. Interest in it has been increased through the county agent's office in the culling demonstrations which have been conducted throughout the county.

The display in the ladies' department is far better than last year's and shows a very healthful interest among the farm women of the county in the enterprise. The exhibit by the girls' clubs is very praiseworthy and shows that this sort of work is receiving encouragement in Rush county.

Make Trucks Pay

The Class 1 railroads of the county, those with monthly receipts of over $1,000,000 employed in July of this year 1,164,872 persons at a total cost of $213,339,385. Of that number 15,155 were executive officials, 289,383 train and engine men, 450,000 maintenance of equipment workers, and 373,000 maintenance of way men.

Those figures are interesting from various points of view. In the first place, there is revealed only one official for every eighty workers, surely not an excessive proportion. In the second place, it is seen that one employee out of every three is engaged in keeping up the condition of the bed over which the trains run. Is it any wonder that motor truck competition is cutting deep into the revenue of the railroads and traction lines. Motor truck freight caravans do not employ a single person in the maintenance of the roadway over which they run. It is true they pay taxes into the state treasuries, which, in turn, are expended in road building, but the railroads also pay taxes, not a penny of which is ever spent in railroad construction by the State.

This disproportion between the cost of operating a railroad and a motor truck line on account of roadway considerations is bound to hold the attention of our law makers as time goes on. Motor trucks must pay a greater proportion of the cost of building and maintaining our roads. Of course we do not owe it to the railroads to equalize the cost of motor truck and rail transportation through increased taxes on trucks, but we do owe it to the taxpayers to see to it that the highways are paid for by the people in approximate proportion to the extent they are used by the various classes of our citizens. When that adjustment of taxes has been made it will then be up to the railroads to demonstrate whether or not they can compete with motor truck transportation. At present, however, they are forced into unfair competition with the trucks.

We shall either have more battleships or fewer. The world can take its choice. Unless there can be an agreement that will reduce the armament burden, the race for strength will continue and the expenditures for fighting material will continue to mount. The nation that does not want to decrease armaments really wants to increase.

A Congressman from Tennessee says the present administration has not accomplished anything. He will get a laugh from the holders of Liberty bonds who have enjoyed a 15 percent increase in the value of their holdings since Harding was elected. Results speak louder than words.

MEDA REPRESENTS
CLERICAL PARTY

In Existence Only 3 Years, Party
Ranks as Dominating Political Influence in Italy

IN AN IMPORTANT POSITION

He is a Lawyer of High Repute and Represents Financial Interest of Lombardy Industrial Center

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 7.—In Filippo Meda, the Italian delegation at Washington has as its representative of Italy's youngest and second greatest political force—that of the Popular, or Catholic, party.

Although in existence only three years, the Italian Clerical party now ranks after the Socialists as the most dominating political influence in Italy.

Indirectly and quite unofficially, too, the selection may be regarded as a very marked courtesy to the Vatican, for with Meda on the Italian delegation Vatican thought and Vatican influence will not be excluded entirely from unofficial participation in the conference.

The Italian Popular party of which Meda is the recognized leader, was formed at the direct suggestion of Nitti to the Vatican. It was Nitti alone of all the Italian statesmen who far back in the war saw that the political effects of the latter in Italy were going to be the most extraordinary development as political elements of socialism and clericalism. Nitti has already ascended to power by effecting this combination and every fresh day of Italian political life indicates it will be the combination on which he and other Italian premiers will have to base their support for a good many years to come. Hence Meda's position on the Washington delegation is one of extreme importance. This has suddenly become doubly so by the decision of the Italian Popular party to throw its whole weight and influence in favor of the League of Nations. Back of this decision politicians profess to see the hand of His Holiness and the first step towards the possible entrance of the Holy See into the League of Nations. Meda is a member of the Milan "black aristocracy"—namely the aristocracy that is grouped about the Pope and the Vatican, as against the "white aristocracy" that is grouped about the King and Quirinal. He is a lawyer of high repute and represents the big financial interests of the Lombardy industrial center. Although an attorney by profession, he has also been a journalist of high note in the Catholic newspaper world of Italy. He was director of the Osservatore Cattolico, of Unione and of Italia.

ODD FELLOWS SHOW REVERSAL OF FORM

Score on First Toss-up Tuesday Night and Are Never Headed by Connersville Reserves

FINAL COUNT IS 35 TO 22

Visitors Threaten to Catch up Only at Few Points in Contest—All Men Show up Well

The Odd Fellows showed a reversal of form last night, and in a fast game of basketball defeated the Connersville Reserves 35 to 22, and in the curtain raiser the Shamrocks of this city won from the local Legion team, 16 to 13.

The Odd Fellows hit a fast pace last night and played like "old timers." After having lost their first two games, they are now primed for the fastest teams, and negotiations are being made with some of the best fives in Indiana for games, regardless of who wins them.

Titsworth for Rushville scored on a field goal last night on the first toss up, when he received the ball from Shaw on the toss up, and turning around quickly, put the ball through for two points.

After getting this lead in the first second of play, the Odd Fellows never were headed, and only in a few places during the contest did the visitors threaten to offer much opposition in the way of catching up. The first half ended with Rushville at 14 and the visitors running behind seven points.

In the last half the local team again offered a bombardment of goals, and they managed to maintain a comfortable lead, although the visitors made many changes in their line-up in order to hold down the score.

Titsworth and Brown at forwards made a good combination, and with Shaw in the center position, the scoring machine worked out in good shape. Norris at floor guard played a brilliant game, and counted for three field goals. Petry at back guard was busy blocking plays and caused the forwards of the Connersville team much worry.

For a few minutes in the last half Eakins went in for Norris and Thorpe for Brown. The two substitutions also worked out well, and Thorpe registered for a couple of field goals while Eakins was not in long enough to get warmed up to his job.

Trusler for Connersville was the big noise of their team and counted for nine of the points.

The Odd Fellows will journey to Greensburg Thursday night to play the Y. M. C. A. team of that city.

The line-up and summary:

Odd Fellows (35) Connersville (22)
Titsworth F Lipps
Brown F Burkhardt
Shaw C Cates
Norris G Cooper
Petry G Wanley

Substitutions: Rushville, Thorpe for Brown, Eakins for Norris, Connersville, Trusler for Cates, Cates for Cooper, Martindale for Lipps, Field goals, Titsworth, Brown 4, Shaw 3, Norris 3, Thorpe 2, Lipps, Burkhardt, Wanley, Trusler 4, Martindale 2, Foul goals, Burkhardt 3, Trusler, Titsworth 4, Shaw 3. ILLINOIS TO HAVE A WINNING TEAM

University Will be in Great Position if Charley Carney's Injured Knee Gets Better

IS THE PIVOT PLAYER

Two Years Ago He Led The West in Scoring Points Three Letter Men Remain on Team

Urbana, Ill., Dec. 7.—"If Charles Carney's injured knee rounds into shape we'll have a championship team".

Such is the sentiment on the University of Illinois campus as the basketball season approaches.

In a large measure, the success of the Illini quintet does depend on Carney. The big fellow, an all-American end, and captain of the floor team, wrenched his knee a year ago in the Ohio football clash. It has not healed properly yet. He attempted football this fall but another injury to the knee in the Michigan battle forced him to retire for the season.

Last winter he wore a steel and leather cast on his leg, but was of little service to the Orange and Blue. A long rest has aided considerably but Coach Frank Winters is still dubious regarding the captain's chances to withstand a hard, grueling campaign.

Carney plays center and much of the offensive work is built around him. Two years ago he led the west in points scored.

He is vitally needed this winter as Reitsch, last season's pivot, did not return to the University.

Walquist, Sabo and Collins are the three letter men on hand, in addition to Carney. The two former have practically cinched the forward berths, while Collins has shown great improvement as back guard.

That leaves the running guard post open. Dave Wilson, football end, may get it but will be pressed closely by youngsters of merit from the freshmen squad.

In case Carney cannot play regularly Stillwell of Grayson fame is being groomed as understudy. Stillwell is a brilliant basket shooter, and works nicely with the speedy passing game.

Illinois opens the Conference season against Ohio State at Columbus, January 14. A number of practice tilts, including a pair with Notre Dame, are scheduled previous to the championship inaugural.

FAIRVIEW A. C. FIVE VICTOR AT CARTHAGE

Independent Team Wins Tuesday Night With One of Opponent's Regulars on Bench

FINAL SCORE OF 25 TO 16

The Fairview A. C. basketball team defeated the Yankee Five of Carthage last night, by the score of 25 to 16. The winners led in the first half 14 to 6. Hill and Essex at forwards and Peters at center were the point getters for the winners. Chambers, with a broken nose, and Alexander, Carthage regulars returned to the game for the first time in over two weeks, but Simmonds, regular center, was out with an infected arm.

The Yanks had a majority of the shots for the basket but could not connect safely. Fairview used long passing successfully. Martin of Rushville acted as referee during the game.

A preliminary contest was played between the Lewisville first team and the Carthage Reserves, in which the former won out by the count of 21 to 10.

Indianapolis.—Skinnay can shoot all the firecrackers he is able to buy for the Fourth of July. The city council voted to preserve the small boy's fireworks and decided not to "legislate all the pleasure out of life."

TELLS OWN STORY OF MALLORY MATCH

Mlle Suzanne Lenglen, European Tennis Champion Says Her Health Failed Her in The Match

LOST TO AMERICAN PLAYER

French Idol Lost Title When Her Breathing Began to Fail During Meet Here This Fall

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(By United Press)

New York, Dec. 7.—Mlle Suzanne Lenglen, the European tennis champion, gives her story about her resignation in the now famous match against Mrs. Molla Mallory, the American champion at Forest Hills last summer, in an interview in "Tennis and Golf" (London.)

The French girl champion, who is resting near Dieppe, "bitterly regrets that she was ever prevailed upon to face the struggle of the American championship and also that she was deceived about her own state of health". Suzanne insists that she does not care about her defeat by Mrs. Mallory, to whom she renders "sincere homage" and describes as "a perfectly loyal player of intrinsic merit". Describing her own feelings in the championship match, Mlle. Lenglen says:

"In the first game I knew that I had presumed on my strength. Immediately my breathing was at fault, and several minutes after I began to cough. It was not before I saw that I could not win. I kept a bright countenance as long as I could, trying to do my best, attempting to smile and to persuade myself that it was the fierce struggle which made my feeble powers give out. But soon I was overtaken by giddiness. During my fits of coughing I could see nothing; the whole court swam before my eyes".

Commenting on the interview, A. Wallis Myers, tennis expert of the "London Field", who came to the United States for matches here, had the following comment in the "Field".

"Mlle. Lenglen accused an unkind world of suggesting that she forgot to shake hands with Mrs. Mallory after the contest. We have never seen this suggestion in print. It is quite untrue. When Mlle. Lenglen came to the umpire's chair and renounced the match, Mrs. Mallory followed her and observing her condition, proposed a brief respite. Mlle. Lenglen intimated that her decision to retire was final—whereupon the American champion expressed her sympathy and withdrew to the pavilion. The question of handshaking did not arise. The relations between Mrs. Mallory and Mlle. Lenglen remained perfectly cordial. The latter says in the interview that she was only beaten at Forest Hills by the 'shadow of myself'."

"We agree that Mlle. Lenglen has played better in France when the occasion has been less stressful; but having seen her play both in Paris and at Wimbledon, as well as in New York, we should be inclined to say that her form did not differ materially on any of these three occasions. On the other hand, Mrs. Mallory was much better at New York than at either Wimbledon or Paris."

TO ADDRESS JOINT MEET

George Mannfeld Will Speak to Rotarians and Sportsmen

Indianapolis, Ind. Dec. 7.—George N. Mannfeld, chief of the fish and game divisions of the state conservation department, will address a joint meeting of the Greensburg Rotary Club and the Decatur County Fish and Game Protective Association at a banquet to be held at Greensburg on the evening of December 12.

On the same evening the seven reel educational motion pictures showing the activities of the state warden service and the propagation of bass at the state hatchery in Riverside Park, Indianapolis, will be exhibited at the K. of P. Theatre under the auspices of the local sportsmen's club.

Chicago.—Gossip of Chicago's high society scandal for years back, was brought to light by the recent casino club harem party. "A group of young men and women went swimming in Lake Michigan following a moonshine party last summer and didn't wear a stitch," a North Shore constable declared.

DIVORCES IN FRANCE INCREASE 20 PERCENT

Statistics Compiled For Year After War Show 19,000 Divorces or Near 7 Per cent of Marriages

IS A SERIOUS PROBLEM

Paris, Dec. 7.—The number of divorces in France has increased by nearly twenty percent since the war. Statistics just compiled for the first year after the war show more than 19,000 divorces, or nearly seven per cent of the total marriages. Owing to the steadily decreasing birth-rate the increase of divorces constitutes a serious problem in connection with the future defense of the nation.

Mademoiselle Helene Miropolsky, one of the few women lawyers practicing in the French courts, said: "Aside from the moral causes that influence the conduct of men and women, the economic revolution caused by the war is largely responsible for the increase."

"During such a cataclysm as the war, the number of domestic dramas multiplied. A separation of more than four years is bound to have some result. In the majority of cases it resulted in binding closer the bonds of affection—but there were hundreds of failures and surprises.

"The exceptional character of the present situation is revealed by the statistics which show that the number of divorces demanded by the husbands is double the number demanded by the wives. Before the war the situation was exactly the reverse."

Girls Save The Day

Princeton, Dec. 7. — Lee Carl's idle mind turned to mischief and his fingers itched for something to do.

He strayed over to Patoka, a village of 500, and after loafing there for several days drew a gun on the cashier of the national bank. He went out the door with $872.

But two girls saw Carl at work and spread the alarm. A hastily organized posse which grew as it passed through the town, found the robber behind a tree a few miles away and a few shots were exchanged with injury to either side.

"I was down and out", the man told Sheriff Dink Flowers, "and I couldn't find work".

AMUSEMENTS

Dustin Farnum at Mystic

Dustin Farnum is coming to the Mystic Theatre today, in a William Fox picture, "The Primal Law", based on a stirring Western story by E. Lloyd Sheldon. In the role of Brian Wayne the popular screen star is given exceptional opportunities not only to appear in the heroic type of character, but also to display to greatest advantage the well known charm of his personality, in Brian's devotion to his little pal, Bobbie Carson, and also in his scenes with Janice Webb, the lovely Eastern girl. Mary Thursman is

The story deals with a plot to wrest valuable lands from Western ranchers, and their fight against the conspirators. There is rapid action and many tense situations. Suspense is said to be sustained throughout, with surprises occurring in striking fashion.

Bernard Darning directed the production and his reputation should guarantee fine staging.

This is the first of several Fox feature productions starring Dustin Farnum which will be made in the current season.

Depicts a Russian Ball

The genuineness of the scenes depicting a Russian ball in "The Great Moment", Gloria Swanson's first Paramount starring picture, and the accuracy of detail, such as in the settings, costuming of the players, and investiture were greatly enhanced by the aid of Michael Kustoff, an ex-staff captain of the Imperial Russian army, who provided director Sam Wood much valuable data regarding such an affair, besides loaning several of his military uniforms, trappings and weapons, in which he had seen actual service in Russia and Siberia.

All who see this new Paramount picture at the Princess theatre today and Thursday can rest assured that the Russian episodes are perfect and true to life in every detail. Mr. Kustoff has a rather interesting record. When the war broke out in 1914, although then only sixteen years old, he volunteered and soon afterward began training at a military school. He was commissioned third lieutenant. Soon afterward he was sent to the trenches and when the Russian Revolution broke out, he served in the royal army against the Bolsheviki as staff captain, commanding a battery of artillery in Siberia. Coming to the United States, he served fourteen months in the U. S. Army aviation service.

The new picture is an adaptation of an original story written especially for Miss Swanson by Elinor Glynn, the noted English authoress. Milton Sills is the leading man.

RUSH POST TO MEET

In the Past, the idea, a mistaken one, was to try and cure the effect without making any effort to find the CAUSE.

In the Present (Today) the SCIENCE OF CHIROPRACTIC strikes right at the root of the matter, adjusts the cause and Nature, the Great Healer, is given the opportunity to make the cure. Nature never fails in this task.

If anything goes wrong with the Electric Light system of your town the TROUBLE MAN employed by the company is immediately sent for. He locates the cause of the trouble and adjusts it. Noted Chemist Points Out That France Showed Considerable Speed in Making It

By WEBB MILLER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Paris, Dec. 7.—"The whole question of disarmament has been radically changed and rendered uncertain by the progress in the use of chemicals in warfare."

Such is the opinion of Doctor Albert Rane, an authority on chemicals and a student of the use of chemicals in war.

Dr. Rane points out that at present there is no known method of determining or limiting the ability of a nation to do harm to its neighbors or enemies by means of chemicals or poison gas. Even though its warships were scrapped and cannons and ammunition destroyed, a nation can have in its laboratories and chemical factories the means of making a terrible war with liquid fire, poison gas and deadly chemicals distributed by airplanes such as are used in ordinary commercial work.

"The Great War has demonstrated the existence of a vast unknown factor of which the power cannot be measured. How can nations conceive disarmament effectively when one of the important factors is unmeasurable? Nobody can now know the limits of the influence of chemistry and aviation on the future warfare."

Dr. Rane emphasizes the fact that almost any nation, were it so willed, could secretly prepare the means for a chemical war in its laboratories in peace time under the guise of peaceful activities.

As an instance of the speed with which chemical manufacture can be developed, Rane cites the manufacture of the terrific explosive yperite in France. In March, 1918, the total production in France was about 580 pounds, but seven months later the factories were producing over 1,000,000 pounds.

The French scientist believes it is nearly impossible to effectively guard against any nation developing the means of chemical warfare in peace time.

He declares that the chance discovery of some chemist in an obscure University might possibly modify the whole art of war-making.

UNVEILS SHAFT FOR GAS MASK INVENTOR

Memorial to The Man Who Found Headgear to Escape Poison Gas, is Located in London

RECEIVED RAPID PROMOTION

By CHAS. McCANN

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

London, Dec. 7.—A simple memorial has been unveiled here to the man who, next to the Kaiser, was cursed during the war by more millions of sweating soldiers than any other man in Europe—and whom millions more, gasping in a cloud of poison gas, have had cause to bless.

The memorial, unveiled in the examination hall of the Pharmaceutical Society, is to Lieut-Colonel E. F. Harrison, inventor of the box-respirator or gas mask of which over 20,000,000 were manufactured for British and American soldiers, and which almost any soldier who has seen active service will say saved his life.

At the outbreak of the war Lieut-Colonel Harrison was a civilian, a distinguished chemist with three degrees. He made several unsuccessful attempts to enlist, but in 1915, at the age of 47, managed to get into the Sportsmen's Battalion as a private. His entrance into the army synchronized with the first German gas attack at Ypres, and he was immediately transferred to the special branch of the Royal Engineers. He quickly became a leader among the band of chemists who made up the anti-gas department.

After many experiments he perfected the box-respirator, rendering the wearer immune from fumes of any known poison gas. He received rapid promotion, and finally became Controller of Chemical Warfare. He died in November 1918, just at armistice time, from pneumonia, aggravated by exposure to gas during the course of his experiments. Shortly before his death he learned he was to be promoted to the rank of Brigadier-General and that he had been awarded the Legion of Honor.

SAYS PROGRESS IS SATISFACTORY

Bryan is Pleased With Result of Conference as Far as it Has Gone, He Declares

WON'T MAKE SPECULATION

Discusses The Program of the Far East Yielding on Territory Concessions and Offers Praise

By WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

The recess taken by the conference lessens the news from that source and limits comments to speculation upon that which has been done, but the progress of the conference continues to be entirely satisfactory.

The programs of the Far East as yielding to the spirit of peace, that pervaded the conference. While the concessions made to China are no more than justice to what that great republic requires still it would be unfair to withhold from Japan, Great Britain and France full credit for relinquishing leased territory in China. It must be remembered that in times past, it was customary for nations to take what they could and to hold what they took. "Never haul down the flag" has been a very popular slogan with imperialists and they have been quick to impute cowardice and littleness to those who propose a restoration of territory.

But the world is entering upon a new era and is destined to experience some new thrills. There were Americans who objected to hauling down the American flag in Cuba, although our congress had been promised by resolution not to hold Cuba as a prize of war.

The United States, however, was true to its pledge and it was amply repaid. When the stars and stripes were hauled down from Morro castle in order that the Cuba flag might be raised in its place, the Cubans rushed forward and caught up the American flag, saying "It must not be allowed to touch the ground."

The time is coming when it will be the boast of nations that their flag is loved instead of feared. The Japanese, the British and the French will find that their flags will be more secure in the Chinese republic when they no longer float over territory occupied against the wishes of the people of China.

Every step taken by the conference toward the abandonment of forcible occupation of territory brings it nearer to the establishment of some forum before which all international questions can be brought. Public discussion will then come near removing the causes of war.

COMBINED AIRPLANE AND MOTOR VEHICLE

Paris Inventor Has Machine Which Can be Changed to Fly in the Air Within 20 Minutes

TRIAL FLIGHTS ARE MADE

Paris, Dec. 7.—In the annual Aircraft Exhibition just opened is shown a strange hybrid motorear-airplane which has completed a successful test in the air and on the ground at the Buc airdrome.

While on the ground the novel machine is to all appearances an ordinary automobile with wings folded along the sides of the car.

Within twenty minutes the inventor and pilot transformed it into an airplane and immediately took off and made a successful flight at over one hundred miles per hour. After landing the plane was retransformed into an automobile and drove away to the Exhibition Hall.

The auto-plane is propelled by a three hundred horse power Hispano-Suiza motor.

When in action as an airplane the engine is in front, but when utilized as an automobile, the engine is in the rear of the car. The designer, M. Tاملر, predicts a great future for the hybrid and points out that it is little more expensive than the highpowered automobiles now in use. He claims that any chauffeur-pilot could make the transformation.

Appropriation Calls For 750 More Liquor Enforcement Men

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 7.—Seven hundred and fifty additional dry agents are to be added to the prohibition forces, if congress allows the estimate of $10,000,000 deemed necessary for prohibition enforcement during the fiscal year of 1923.

These agents would be concentrated in mobile forces to go into several of the largest cities in the country for clean up drives. From these cities the forces will be shifted to border points and to sea coast cities for drives against widespread successful booze smuggling.

Because of the large amount of shifting of forces for great clean up drives, Commissioner Haynes has asked travelling expenditures of one fourth of the total.

MYSTERY MAN IS A PARIS BANKER

He is Supposed to Have Hand in Almost Every Intrigue—is Now Visiting London

PHOTOGRAPHED PUBLICITY

Sir Basil Zaharoff, G. B. E. Holder of Grand Cross of French Legion and Banker at Paris

By CHAS. McCANN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

London, Dec. 7.—Europe's mystery man, supposed to pull the invisible strings by which puppet kings are seated or unseated, and to have a hand in almost every European intrigue, is paying a brief visit to London.

Incidentally he has just been photographed publicly for the first time in years, if not for the first time in his life. The photograph discloses a white goateed gentleman of seventy-one, somewhat resembling a slightly portly Buffalo Bill; black-clothed and distinguished-looking.

"Who's Who" gives him as Sir Basil Zaharoff, G. B. E. (Knight Grand Cross of the British Empire) holder of the grand cross of the French Legion of Honor, and a banker of Paris.

Popular report gives this Anglo-French-Grecian-Russian holder of a British knighthood and the highest class of the Legion of Honor credit for being the man who put King Constantine back on his throne financed a couple of Greek wars, and who, anytime he gets a new idea, visits the proper premier and "puts it across."

Sir Basil was born of a Russian father and a Greek mother. He is French by nationality and English by education. He is at home in London, Paris, Athens, Madrid and Monte Carlo. He can go to any European capital and tell the ordinary resident things about the city.

He has a palatial residence in Paris, in the Avenue Hoche. There a beaten-gold dinner service, with jewel-inlaid spoons. It is at Monte Carlo, however, that his entertainments reach their climax. There, where he has an Arabian Night-like suite at the Hotel de Paris, he entertains, as he does in Paris or London, ministers, peers and bankers, and, according to gossip, arranges for his plans to be effected.

Sir Basil's wealth is estimated at anything from $100,000,000 up. It is probably "up," as he owns all sorts of property, from theatres to half of Monte Carlo. He controls an army of banks and armament firms. He is supposed to be financing bankrupt governments one day, influencing cabinets the next. He entertains lavishly and gives as lavishly though he is a business man whose touch is apparently Midas-like. He gave $2,500,000 a year to the Greek government during the Balkan wars, and is supposed to have financed Constantine in his return to the throne. He gave Athens a huge wireless station, helped French athletes, established chairs of aviation at the Universities of Paris and Petrograd, besides one at Oxford University.

Newspaper and politicians frequently attack Sir Basil. He never replies, and is never interviewed.

Col. Guinness said recently in the House of Commons, referring to Lloyd George's friendship for Sir Basil.

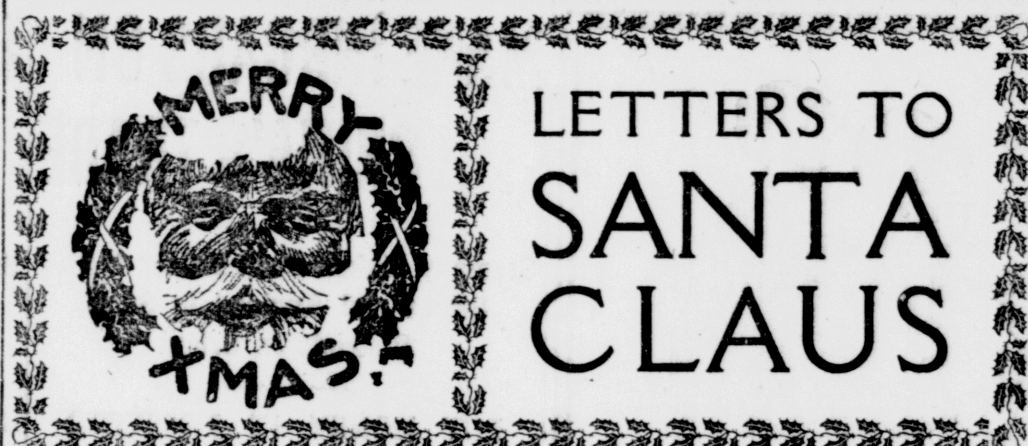

"The voice behind the throne, or, to be more accurate, the Presidential chair", a thrust at the Prime Minister's control of British affairs, "is probably Sir Basil Zaharoff's".

The present visit to England has been connected with the crisis in Greek affairs following the attempt to crush Turkey. If Greek ministers now here to negotiate a loan are successful, it will be Sir Basil they may thank.

MAKE INROADS ON CHINA'S TRADE

Germany Makes Strides Over United States and England in Some Districts in Orient

PUT MONEY IN PROJECTS

Finance is Believed to be Chief Reason Why They Manage to Hold China's Trade

By CARL D. GROAT
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Dec. 7.—German industry, reaching out into every corner of the earth for trade, is making big inroads in China.

Chinese representatives here said today that the way things are now heading Germany will outrace England and America unless the latter nations watch out. In some districts, where, for instance, big American interests, including Standard Oil, have been the pioneers, Germany is now passing the American trade records as well as the English.

German accommodation to the economic methods and customs of the country with whom it deals is credited by the Chinese as the reason for Germany's fast-growing trade there. China has never cherished very violent feelings about Germany, though she aligned with the Allies in the world war. Hence, Germany is not finding it particularly difficult to re-establish herself since conclusion of the Chinese-German trade treaty last summer.

The Germans are putting money into Chinese companies, readily agreeing that the Chinese can have the majority holdings—and, in some cases, even advancing money to Chinese interests so the latter can finance their 51 per cent of a concern.

Then again, the Germans have waived the rights of "extra territoriality." That means that a German stands on the same basis as a Chinese. Under extra territoriality, an American, for instance, could not be arrested by Chinese authorities, but instead only by American authorities on Chinese complaint. Again, an American could only trade in the so-called "treaty ports" whereas the Germans have waived the extra territorial right can go ahead and trade where he chooses.

These instances, above cited, are a part of the German system of adapting their methods to the foreign methods. And, the result is that Germany is fast getting a hold in China.

Of course, the element of cheap prices, due to the low position of the German mark, has a marked bearing on the problem.

ROAD PROJECTS ARE ABOUT DONE

With One Exception, All Highway Contracts Let in 1919 Will be Finished Soon

80 MILES OF PAVEMENT BUILT

Half Mile of Unpaved Highway on Range Line Road Near Kokomo to be Completed in Spring

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 7.—With the single exception of one project, all contracts let in 1919 for state highway construction and carried on until this year will be completed within the next few days.

This means that during the season of 1921 the state highway department has constructed approximately eighty miles of pavement of the concrete and bituminous type.

The half a mile section of unpaved highway which is on the Range Line road south of Kokomo will be put into shape for use this winter and as soon as weather conditions permit will be completed early next spring.

This is the way Lawrence Lyons director of the state highway commission, summed up the work of his construction department today.

Mr. Lyons said there are no approximately 3500 miles in the Indiana highway system. It is very probable that additional mileage will be taken into the system during 1922. Of the present mileage system one fifth or about 700 miles are of the hard surface type. The state highway department since its inception has constructed in all about 132 miles of hard surface roads, eighty miles of which were built in 1921.

The commission in contemplating letting contracts for the construction of from 100 to 125 miles of highway principally of the hard surface type, proposals for which will be opened sometime after January.

On this proposed new construction 66 miles are on the National road with prospects in Vigo, Clay, Putnam, Hendricks, Hancock and Henry counties. This work will be pushed to early completion and thus the commission expects to close the gaps in this road early next year giving Indiana a complete and continuous stretch of transcontinental highway across the state from Terre Haute to Richmond.

TO CUT CORN THEIR ACREAGE

Kosciusko County Farmers to Sow Land in Hay Next Year

Warsaw, Ind., Dec. 7.—As a result of the low price at which corn has been selling this fall, the acreage devoted to corn in Kosciusko county will be reduced at a considerable extent next year, according to members of the Kosciusko County Farmers Federation.

This year 63,000 acres, or a little more than one-third of the 181,000 acres available for all crops, were in corn.

Many ruralists will devote land heretofore used for corn to hay, sowing timothy, clover and alfalfa.

Two of the 17 townships of Kosciusko county this year had more than 40 percent of land available for crops in corn.

PREDICTS BONUS LAW

Washington, Dec. 7.—Passage of the soldier bonus law may be the Senate's Christmas gift to former service men, Senator McCumber, North Dakota, chief Senate advocate of the compensation measure announced today. The increased compensation measure likely will be considered immediately following enactment of the administration foreign debt refunding bill, McCumber said.
